

What are the steps to change my name AND sex/gender marker in Travis County, Texas?

These instructions are to get a court order to change your sex identifier/gender marker and name. If you want to just change your sex/gender identifier (and not your name), there are separate instructions and forms for that. Note: These forms are intended for use in Travis County, Texas.

Please note that as of August 2024, Texas Vital Statistics and at the Texas Department of Public Safety will not change a gender marker/sex identifier on a Texas birth certificate or driver's license.

Step 1. Fill out three forms.

- 1) Petition to Change the Name and Sex/Gender Identifier of an Adult.
- and -
- 2) Final Order to Change the Sex /Gender Identifier of an Adult.
-and-
- 3) Order Changing Name of an Adult. The judge signs this form to order the agencies to change your name on official documents

Note: When filling out the Petition and Orders, use your current name and sex/gender as they appear now on your birth certificate or your social security card.

Where do I get the forms?

You can print forms from the Law Library's website at www.TravisCountyLawLibrary.org.

If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you can ask to waive it by filing a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form. This form is also on the website.

Step 2. Gather the additional paperwork.

You will need a letter from a medical doctor. The letter should say that:

- The doctor has examined you,
- You have received appropriate clinical treatment for transitioning, and
- Granting a change of gender/sex marker is in your best interest.

You may also need this paperwork:

- A Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form (to ask that filing fees be waived)

- A copy of your criminal history report (if you were convicted of a felony and are asking to change your name to the primary name used in your criminal history record)
- A copy of your certificate of discharge (if you were convicted of a felony and served time in prison)
- A copy of your discharge from felony probation (if you successfully completed probation)
- A copy of your Sex Offender Update Form (if you are required to register as a sex offender)

Do you want your forms reviewed by an attorney?

- You can hire a private attorney. There are attorneys in Austin who specialize in LGBT+ legal matters.
- The Travis County Law Library can review your forms.
- The University of Texas Law School holds a legal clinic each semester. The clinic volunteers will help you fill out the paperwork.

Step 3. Get your fingerprints taken.

Have your fingerprints taken. You will need the fingerprint card to file with your Petition.

Where do I get my fingerprints taken?

Check with local law enforcement to learn where you can have your fingerprints taken. There is a fee, usually around $20.

In Travis County, you can have your fingerprints taken at Passport Express at 1107 Rio Grande, Austin, Texas 78701.

Step 4. File your Petition.

File the Petition in the District Clerk's Office, 1700 Guadalupe 3rd floor or online or by mail.

You should file these attachments with your Petition:

1. The fingerprint card.
2. The letter from your medical doctor.
3. Your proposed order to change your name.
4. Your proposed order to change your sex/gender identifier.

And, if applicable, file:

- A Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form (if you want to ask that filing fees be waived)
- Exhibit: A copy of your certificate of discharge (if you were convicted of a felony)
- Exhibit: A copy of your criminal history record (If you were convicted of a felony and are asking to change your name to the primary name used in your criminal history record)
- Exhibit: A copy of your discharge from felony probation (if you completed probation)
- Exhibit: A copy of your Sex Offender Update Form (if you are required to register as a sex offender).

Step 5. Pay the Filing Fee.

You will pay a filing fee of about $350 at the District Clerk's Office.

If paying the fee will create a financial hardship for you and your family, you may file a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form to ask the Court to waive court and filing fees.

Step 6. Wait for a Notice from the Court.

Court cases take some time to process. The average time for Gender Identifier case to be finished is around four months. If you have reached the 4-month mark without any contact from the Court, or if you have concerns about your filing, you can contact the Travis County Law Library to check on your case. After four months have passed since the original or any subsequent amended filings, we can reach out to the clerk's office on your behalf. Law Library: 512-854-8677.

You can file your Petition online at www.eFileTexas.gov.

If you file online:

1. Make sure you scan and upload your fingerprint card, the doctor letter, the exhibits (if applicable) along with the Petition.
2. Fill out and upload your proposed order forms -
- Final Order to Change Sex/Gender Identifier of an Adult and
- Order Changing Name of an Adult.
3. Include instructions in the 'Comments' section that you would like your paperwork forwarded to the court for consideration.

Once the Judge signs your order, the court will send you a Notice of Order. These notices are sent through email or postal mail.

Step 7. Get certified copies of the Order.

Get certified copies of the orders signed by the judge from the District Clerk's Office by going to 1700 Guadalupe 3rd floor or by ordering them online.

You may want to get at least 3 certified copies of each order. You will need the certified copies of the order when you notify agencies.

Step 8. Notify.

Notify agencies of your name and identifier change. You may be required to show them a certified copy of your court order. Agencies to notify include the:

- Social Security Administration
- Passport Office
- Tax Office (vehicle and voter registration)
- County Clerk's Office (property titles)

As of August 2024, Vital Statistics (birth certificates) and the Texas Department of Public Safety (driver's license) no longer accept court orders to change gender markers on birth certificates and driver's licenses. However, you can still change your name at these agencies using the certified copy of the Order Changing Name of Adult.

Contact Lambda Legal at lambdalegal.org/helpdesk if you have questions or concerns about notifying Texas state agencies.

Questions: Gender Marker and Name Change

Q: Who can use these forms?

A: These forms are intended for use by people who want to change their name and the sex on their public documents to match their gender identity.

If you want to change your gender marker only, and not your name, there are separate forms for that.

Q: Can I change my name and gender/sex marker on public documents without going to court?

A: No. In Texas, you need a court order. Judges have discretion to either grant or deny your request.

Q: Is surgery or other medical procedure required before I can change my gender/sex marker?

A: No, surgery is not required by Texas law. What is required is a narrative statement from your medical doctor that says:

- The doctor has examined you.
- You have received appropriate treatment to transition.
- It is in your best interest (it is recommended) that your sex and/or gender marker be changed in public records to be consistent with your identity and presentation.

In exercising their discretion to grant sex/gender marker changes, judges often look to the Current Standards of Care (SOC) established by the World Professional Association for Transgender Health (WPATH).

Q: Can I change my gender/sex marker to non-binary or some other identity that is neither male or female (M or F)?

A: No. Texas law does not recognize non-binary, third gender or gender fluid as an acceptable entry for sex or gender that is printed on state identification documents.

Q: Do I have to submit a set of my fingerprints with my petition?

A: Yes. You are required to submit a set of your fingerprints on a fingerprint card with your petition. The statute about fingerprints can be found at Texas Family Code, Section 45.102(a)6.

If you file your Petition online, you must scan and upload your fingerprint card. Make sure the image of your prints is legible and that you sign the card.

Q: Will my identity documents automatically be updated once the court enters an order?

A: No. Getting an order is just the first step of the process of correcting your name and/or gender marker on your ID documents. You will need to contact the issuing authority for each type of ID and present a certified copy of the court order when you ask for a change.

You can get certified copies of the orders signed by the judge from the District Clerk's Office, 1700 Guadalupe 3rd floor. You can also purchase certified copies online from the District Clerk's Office.

Although the order is a binding order of a Texas district court of general jurisdiction, it is not an absolute guarantee that state entities will immediately adjust your gender marker in accordance with the order.

As of August 2024, both the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) and Texas Vital Statistics have policies that the agencies will no longer accept gender marker change orders. You may want to contact the help desk at Lambda Legal 214-219-8585 before contacting DPS.

Q: I was convicted of a crime; can I still change my name?

A: All offenses charged above a Class C misdemeanor must be listed in the Petition. (An offense charge does not disqualify from changing your name.) Include the case number and court of each offense.

There are special requirements if you were convicted of a felony or of a sex offense. (See Texas Family Code 45.103.)

For felonies:

- If you served time in prison for a felony, you must wait two years from the date listed on your certificate of discharge. Get a copy of your certificate of discharge from the Classification and Records division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Texas Department of Criminal Justice. Attach it to your petition.
- If you were on felony probation, you must wait two years from the date you successfully completed probation. Get a copy of your certificate of successful completion of probation from the District Clerk of the county where you were prosecuted and attach it to your petition.

A registered sex offender must first notify the local law enforcement office of the proposed name change. Attach a copy of the written notification to law enforcement to the Petition.

Q: I was convicted of a felony; how do learn my SID (State Identification) or FBI number?

Contact the Texas Department of Criminal Justice to learn your SID or FBI number at 512-406-5202 or at 1-800-535-0283.

Q: Where can I read the name change laws?

The Texas laws about name changes are in the Texas Family Code, sections 45.101 to 45.106.
